SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: Forty-eight (48) months.

☒ Special Conditions:

- 1) The defendant shall submit to periodic urine surveillance and/or breath, saliva, and skin tests for the detection of drug and/or alcohol abuse as directed by the Probation Office. Defendant may incur costs associated with such detection efforts based upon ability to pay as determined by the Probation Office.
- 2) The defendant shall participate in an assessment or a program, inpatient or outpatient, for the treatment of drug and/or alcohol addiction, dependency or abuse which may include, but not be limited to urine, breath, saliva and skin testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs and/or alcohol. Further, the defendant shall participate as instructed by the probation officer and shall comply with all rules and regulations of the treatment agency until discharged by the Program Director with the approval of the probation officer. The defendant shall further submit to such drug-detection techniques, in addition to those performed by the treatment agency, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant may incur costs associated with such drug/alcohol detection and treatment, based upon the ability to pay, as determined by the probation officer.
- 3) The defendant shall participate in a mental health evaluation and comply with any treatment consistent with the findings of said evaluation as recommended by the Probation Office. The defendant may incur costs associated with such program, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.
- 4) The defendant shall submit his person, house, residence, vehicle(s), papers, computer(s) (as defined by 18 U.S.C., § 1030(e)(1)), or other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, business or place of employment and any other property under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by the United States Probation Office at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon a reasonable suspicion of contraband, or evidence of violation of condition of release. Failure to submit to a search in accordance with this condition may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
- 5) Immediately upon release from custody, the defendant shall be monitored by the form of location monitoring indicated below for the first five (5) months of supervised release and shall abide by all technology requirements. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of participation in the location monitoring program as directed by the court and the supervising officer. The location monitoring technology used will be at the discretion of the officer. This form of location monitoring technology shall be used to monitor the following restriction on the movement of defendant in the community, as well as other court-imposed conditions of release (the court must impose one of these components):

You are restricted to your residence at all times, except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as preapproved by the officer (home detention).

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994: The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this judgment. The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court.

The defendant shall also comply with the additional conditions on the attached page.
